Node.js

Website Development

Not Earned

Build scalable server-side applications with the Node.js Certification. This badge demonstrates your ability to use Node.js for backend development, enabling JavaScript to run outside the browser. You will be tested on core concepts such as the event-driven architecture, non-blocking I/O, and asynchronous programming using callbacks, promises, and async/await. The certification also evaluates your understanding of modules, file system operations, and building APIs. Candidates must show the ability to handle server requests, manage dependencies with npm, and structure backend applications effectively. By earning this badge, you prove your capability to create fast, scalable, and efficient server-side solutions that power modern web applications.

To earn the badge, you must pass the test based on the following criteria :

Number of Questions:	10 Questions
Time Limit:	10 Minutes
Passing Score:	7 or more correct answers
